tion to the Quarterly Meeting by our Friends Cynthia J. Earle Cynthia J. Earle, Joanna Peck, Joseph Anthony and Lydia E. Danielson whom we appoint, representatives to said meeting and they are requested to meet the representatives from other Monthly meetings at the meeting house in Greenwich at 9 o'clock on the morning of the Quarterly Meeting. A request to become a member from Sarah M. Carpenter, forwarded by Coventry Preparative meeting which has been read, which is as follows: 4 Mo. 29th 1874.

Dear Friends:

I have attended your meetings quite regularly, for a long time. In this affliction and sore bereavement, I was visited by one of your members and led to accompany her to your place of worship. While there, my heart was reached as never before, by the tender min-istrations of a Saviour's love; and with all my burdens of sin and sorrow, I fell at His feet and believing, found forgiveness there.
With finding that rest and satisfaction in your meetings, I would like to become a member if you are willing to receive me

Sarah M. Carpenter

Thompson be appointed. Catharine Greene and Cynthia J. Earle to visit the families and report their judgment in the case.

The representatives to our last quarterly meeting report their attendance with one exception.

We now adjourn to meet at Greenwich on fourth day the 16th of 5 mo. next.

At Greenwich Mo. Meeting of Friends held by adjournment in joint Session 5-16-1874

Representatives present as reported from

A committee appointed to visit Sarah E. Carpenter who requested membership in this meeting reported that they had visited said S. M. Carpenter agreeable to our appointment, we found her in an humble contrite condition and think she gives evidence of true conversion of heart that she has a decided preference for our manner of worship and would recommend that she be received a member of our religious Society. Submitting the same to the monthly meeting.

Catharine Greene) Cynthia J. Earle) Com.

The above report was accepted by the monthly meeting and she is accordingly received a member of our religious Society and Cynthia Earle is appointed to inform her of the decision of the monthly meeting.
